Senator John Heinz
Russell Senate Office Building, #443
Washington, DC 20510

Dear Senator Heinz:

Carbondale does not need a new post office. To spend a half million dollars on a new post office in Carbondale is to misuse taxpayers' dollars. If federal money is available for use in Carbondale, it should be used to remodel the present post office and to restore and rehabilitate other historically and architecturally important buildings in Carbondale. To move the post office from its present building is to jeopardize the life not only of Main Street but also of Carbondale itself.

Sincerely yours,

S. Robert Powell
President
